

Welcome to Your Desktop!

Guided Notes

Vocabulary

1. An icon is a symbol which usually represents a computer program, computer file, folder, or an action for a program to do. Icons are usually _____.
2. A link (sometimes called a hyperlink) brings the user to data by _____. Typically links bring the user to another website.
3. A website is a location connected to the internet that provides information or data, including things like _____, and online shopping.
4. A window is a _____ on a computer display screen. Windows are the container for computer programs. All computer programs are contained and viewed within a window.
5. A search engine is a site on the internet that uses software to locate key words in other sites. Example: _____
6. An internet browser is a software program that you use to view web pages on your computer. You can think of your browser as your _____ to the internet.